Encore! is a non-profit group of experienced community musicians, passionate about the art of handbell and chime ringing. Established in 2008, under the skillful leadership of Director Cara Davis, Encore! was graciously offered its initial support by First Presbyterian Church of Oshkosh.

Encore!'s mission is to promote the musical art of handbell ringing. Our purpose is to bring engaging musical performances to a wide audience while building a reputation as educators in the art of handbell ringing.
